

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

VOL. XXVI.

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1904.

NO. 70.

WORLD'S FAIR

Lunch Baskets AND SUIT CASES

We offer for the first time in Hopkinsville a lot of Japan

-TRAVELING CASES-

Made of strong, flexible willow. Very durable and of feather weight. Made regular suit case shape, with bleached leather straps and handle. A very neat and inexpensive Lunch Basket or Suit Case. Comes in 18, 20, and 22 inch size. At $1.15 and $1.50. If you go to the fair you'll need one.

J. H. ANDERSON & CO.

Fall MILLINERY

Now Ready for You.

The grandest line of quick selling, up-to-date Millinery ever shown in the city at a saving of 25 per cent.

Ladies and Misses White Hats,
so much in demand,
$1.25 and $1.50.

Children's School Hats, broad brim, nicely bound with band.
50c and 75c.

Hats of all Kinds.
25c to 75c.

Pompons, Veilings, and New Accessories of Fall Millinery.

Temple of Fashion,

Miss S. B. Hooser & Co. 105 S. Main.

Bethel :-: College,

(INCORPORATED.)

RUSSELLVILLE, KENTUCKY.

Collegiate, Classical and Scientific Courses. Academic Department those who cannot meet entrance requirements. Able Faculty, thorough instruction. Library and Reading room. Laboratory equal to demands. Beautiful Campus of 30 Acres, Athletic Field, New Gymnasium, Tennis Courts, Croquet grounds. Buildings contain all modern improvements, electric lights, hot air heating, water supply baths. Special attention to boarding department. Tuition free to students' sons and licentiates. Expenses moderate. Next session Sept. 1, 1904. For illustrated catalogue and information, address

Wm. H. Harrison, President.

SEWER SYSTEM

To Be Considered in a Special Council Meeting.

Citizens Invited to Appear and Discuss the Question Friday Night.

At the meeting of the City Council Friday night, Engineer McClaid presented his report on the question of a sewerage system, with map and profile drawings of the streets. He estimated the cost of constructing 39,250 feet of ten-inch sewers at about $30,000. The drawings showed sewer lines on the following streets:

Main street, rock bridge to 21st. Virginia, 6th to 21st. Liberty, 6th to 14th. Clay, 6th to 18th. Campbell, 9th to 18th. Walnut, 9th to 18th.

Cross Streets.

Second, from public school building to Campbell, with Campbell to 14th and thence to river. Fifth, Railroad to river. Ninth, S. K. College to River. Thirteenth, Walnut to city limits. Fourteenth, Railroad to Virginia. Sixteenth, Railroad to Virginia. Eighteenth, Clay to Virginia. Nineteenth, Main to High, High to 17th and Canton pike.

West of the River.

Jessup Ave., 7th to city limits. Cleveland, 7th to 2nd. Elm, 7th to 2nd.

The Council will meet in a called session next Friday night to consider the matter in all its bearings, and invites a general attendance of citizens interested in the sewerage question.

The plan is to issue bonds to the extent of $30,000, which the city can do without an increase of taxation at the present rate of $1.50, recently raised from $1.25. The bonded indebtedness has been decreased from $118,000 to about $65,000, while the taxable property of the city is constantly increasing. A vote would have to be taken to authorize the bond issue, and the Council stands ready to order the election if the people of the city see fit to request it.

The proposed system is to be known as the Dark Bacteria plan. It conducts the sewage into a series of underground tanks, air-tight, where after undergoing a process of decomposition it is cleaned out once or twice a year and sold for fertilizing purposes. The plan is said to be in operation at Danville, Ky., and on a large scale in Minneapolis, St. Paul and other cities. All branches of the question will be gone into at the meeting Friday night, and the needs of the city discussed by the doctors of the city, and others. The prevalence of typhoid fever in some parts of the city is attributed to the lack of sewers, and this greatly needed public improvement cannot longer be delayed. Hopkinsville is the most important city of the fourth class in Kentucky, soon to enter the third class, and it should maintain a place in the very front rank in every respect. The taxes cannot be increased and there is no good reason why the city should not at once be provided with a sewerage system. Let the live, progressive citizens attend the meeting Friday night and let the Council know how they stand on the question.

PLEA OF GUILTY

Entered and Prisoner Was Fined And Released.

Tom Carter, col., who was arrested last week on a charge of stealing a horse from Mr. T. E. Clark, of near the city, was tried Saturday. Carter entered a plea of guilty of breach of the peace and was fined $10 and costs. The amount was settled and the prisoner released.

The Trigg county Fiscal Court has accepted the new jail at a cost of $6,764.60.

JAPS VICTORIOUS.

Drive Out the Russians and Occupy Liao Yang.

Gen. Kuropatkin Put to Flight and Gen. Stakelberg, Who Refused to Run, Left to His Fate.

Gen. Kuropatkin's army is in full retreat in the direction of Mukden. Liao Yang has been abandoned by the Russians and occupied by the Japanese. Gen. Stakelberg's corps of 25,000 men has been surrounded by the Japanese and cut off from the main body, and it is feared at St. Petersburg that this means the loss of the whole of the First Siberian army corps. The disaster to Stakelberg's corps is said to be due to the fact that he refused to obey the order of Gen. Kuropatkin to retreat across the Tai Tse river with the main army. Gen. Kuropatkin, in a report to the general staff at St. Petersburg, says the Russians blew up their magazines and set fire to their army stores prior to the evacuation of Liao Yang. It is believed in St. Petersburg that the retreat of Kuropatkin will have a depressing effect on the garrison at Port Arthur which can no longer hope for relief. Late reports from Che Foo say that the bombardment of the fortress is still in progress.

GREATEST SINCE LEIPSIC.

Says a Paris Newspaper of The Battle at Liao Yang.

Paris, Sept. 3.—The battle of Liao Yang attracts intense interest among the French officials and public generally as likely to prove the turning point of the war. The foreign office construes the latest advices received here this afternoon, as showing that Gen. Kuropatkin has suffered a serious check, though not yet amounting to a defeat or rout. The officials continue to say that he is executing a slow withdrawal toward Mukden, giving dogged resistance. Military experts point out that the magnitude of the battle is greater than any fought during the Franco-German War, the siege of Metz involving 350,000 on both sides, whereas there were over 400,000 at Liao Yang. The Figaro says it is the greatest fight since the battle of Leipsic.

Stakelberg Gets Out.

The only direct news from the seat of war bearing Sunday's date came by way of Tokio in a report from Field Marshal Oyama, saying that Liao Yang fell completely into the hands of the Japanese at 9 o'clock this morning; that the Japanese casualties were believed to be heavy, and that nothing was known by the Japanese concerning conditions on the right bank of the Taitse river.

The only comfort for the Russians at home was the news, conveyed in a report from Gen. Kuropatkin, dated Saturday afternoon, that Gen. Stakelberg's First Siberian army corps of 25,000 men, reported Saturday as having been cut off to the westward of Liao Yang, had been safely extricated, and that the corps had succeeded in reaching the main Russian body on the right bank of the river, but no details of the escape of Stakelberg are known.

Gen. Kuropatkin also reported that the greater portion of his army was at the time of filing the report, south of Yentai (ten miles north-east of Liao Yang) and a few miles from the Yentai mines, where fierce fighting had been in progress. It is indicated that there has been a cessation of the fierce fighting. Kuropatkin reports that his men were not being much interfered with by the Japanese in the neighborhood of his army.

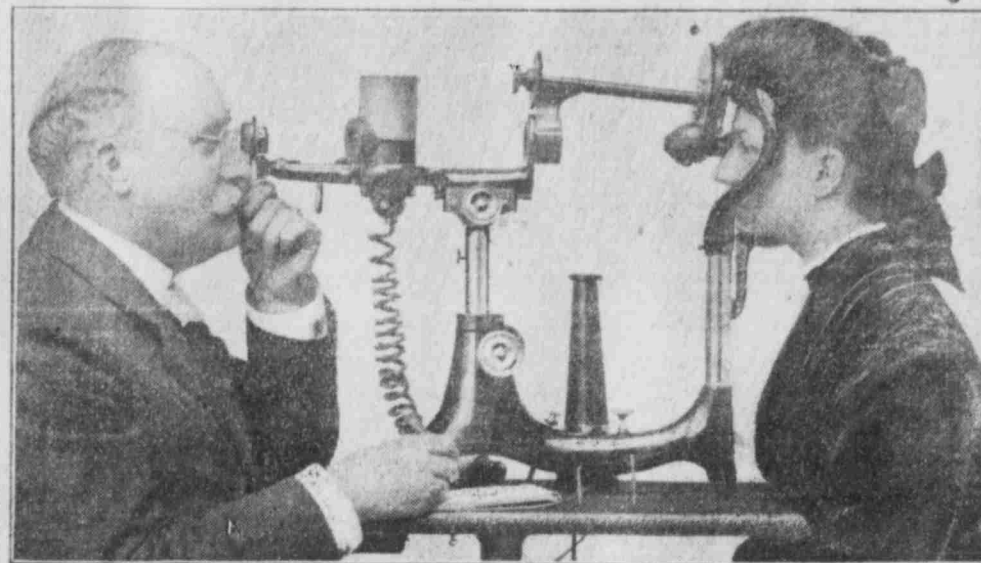

In St. Petersburg the absence of news is looked upon as heightening

No Cut Sales.

We have no "Cut Sales," but will guarantee to sell goods as cheap as any house in Hopkinsville. A large stock to select from. We invite you to call at once and inspect our goods.

T. M. JONES.

Main St., Hopkinsville, Ky.

The very latest and most wonderful of modern optical instruments now installed in the optical department of M. D. KELLY, Graduate Scientific Optometrist.

This is one of the many old hand methods, formerly employed.

the gravity of the situation for the Russians.

It was reported in St. Petersburg Sunday night that Kuropatkin had arrived at Tiebling, which is ten miles north of Yentai and eighteen miles south of Mukden.

PRIZE WINNERS.

Local Names In the Courier Journal List.

The Sunday's Courier Journal contained the names of its recent prize picture winners. Fanny L. Campbell, of Hopkinsville R. F. D. 4, won the second for Bird Paintings.

Among those given honorable mention for the August puzzle were:

Wm. H. Forgg, Pembroke, and Coleman Moore, Hopkinsville. For the traveling satchel puzzle: Mattie Ackerman, Pembroke, Addie C. Green, Mary Kennedy, Ruth Fritz, John Lawson, Wm. R. Hooe, Addie B. Peace, Annie Porter Williams, Katie May Cooper, Edward Lambert Campbell, Hopkinsville; Mary Lee Owen, Pembroke.

Engagement Announced.

Cadiz, Ky., Sept. 1.—Mr. and Mrs. M.H. Jagoe, of this place, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Lee, to Prof. D. W. Bridges, of Lewisburg, Tenn. The wedding will take place some time this fall.

WAIVED EXAMINATION.

Further Facts About the Shooting Near Giracey.

Mr. Geo. Wilson, who shot Jim Bacon, of near Gracey, last week, waived examination and the case goes over to the grand jury. Mr. Wilson is under a bond of $500.

Bacon was shot in the side with a no. 44 Winchester rifle, but the wound made was only a slight one. Bacon is a cropper on Mr. Wilson's farm and the trouble arose over the failure of the negro to properly work his tobacco. Mr. Wilson states that Bacon came to his house and assaulted him with rocks, when he shot him.

PEMBROKE SHOW.

Premiums For Winners and Great Time Promised.

The Christian County Horse Show Association will hold its first show at Pembroke, on Friday and Saturday, Sept. 23-24. The premium list will be liberal, insuring the entry of the best stock throughout this section. The event promises to be one that will attract great crowds both days.

Death of Child.

A little child of Mr. E. S. Monk, of Crofton, died Saturday, after an illness of several weeks.

Yesterday was Labor Day and the postoffice was closed.